YAVAPAI-APACHE NATION
GENERAL AND SPECIAL EVENT COMMITTEE CODE

(A) AUTHORITY AND PURPOSE.

(1) This General and Special Event Committee Code (hereinafter “Code”) is adopted by the Yavapai-Apache Tribal Council under authority set forth in the Constitution of the Yavapai-Apache Nation as follows: Article IV, Sections (p) and (v), respectively, provide that the Council is authorized “to appoint subordinate committees…and to prescribe their compensation, tenure, duties, policies and procedures;” and “to enact laws, ordinances and resolutions necessary or incidental to the exercise of its legislative powers”. The Code may be cited as the “Yavapai-Apache Nation General and Special Event Committee Code” or “YAN Committee Code”.

(2) The purpose of this Code is to adopt a procedure under which the Tribal Council establishes General and Special Event committees and to regulate the activities of such committees. Each committee is established to advise and make recommendations regarding each specific committee purpose as defined by the Council in the resolution establishing the committee. The committee will act in an advisory capacity to the Tribal Council. All committees will be regulated by this Code and the relevant provisions of other Tribal codes and polices, except that where a committee is established by a specific resolution, ordinance, or code, the specific provisions of that ordinance, resolution or code will govern where those provisions differ from this Code.

(B) DEFINITIONS.

(1) "Donation" means the voluntary transfer of funds or items of material value to a person or other entity for which no goods or services of substantially equal value are received in return.

(2) "General Committee" means any committee established by the Tribal Council other than a Special Event Committee and may be either a (a) Standing Committee established to fulfill a specific long-term function on behalf of the Tribal Council or (b) an Ad-hoc Committee established to fulfill a specific short-term function on behalf of the Tribal Council, which shall be dissolved upon completion of that function.

(3) “Immediate Family Member” means the committee member’s parent or grandparent (whether adoptive or step), sibling, child (whether adoptive, half or step), or spouse (as defined by the Nation’s Employee Handbook).

(4) "Nation" means the Yavapai-Apache Nation.

(5) “Special Event Committee” means a committee established by the Tribal Council to plan, organize and conduct special events on behalf of the Nation as assigned by the Tribal Council. Such committees are temporary and short-term in nature and are dissolved at the conclusion of the special event for which it was established.

(6) "Tribal Council" or "Council" means the Tribal Council of the Yavapai-Apache Nation.

(7) "Unexcused Absence" means an absence from any meeting of the committee for which no written excuse has been given to the Committee Chairperson and accepted by a majority vote of the relevant committee (excluding the member who has submitted the written excuse).

(C) ESTABLISHMENT, BYLAWS, MEMBERSHIP AND RESPONSIBILITIES.

(1) General. The Tribal Council may, by resolution, establish such standing, ad-hoc, and special event committees as the Council deems appropriate. All such committees shall be directly accountable to the Council. The Council reserves authority to deal directly with the committees as necessary and the Council may dissolve all such committees in its complete discretion.

(2) Committees. Standing and Ad Hoc Committees are established to assist the Tribal Council in carrying out its responsibilities, to provide quality services to the Tribal membership, and to develop, maintain, and protect the assets and interests of the Nation as assigned by the Council. In carrying out its responsibilities under this Code each committee shall:

(a) Act in an advisory capacity to the Tribal Council in recommending policies and procedures, identifying needs, developing priorities of the Nation, and carrying out such tasks as may be assigned by the Council (unless otherwise provided in a committee's approved bylaws, the advisory capacity of committees is limited to making recommendations, with final decision-making authority remaining with the Tribal Council);

(b) Report to the Tribal Council on committee activities, issues and other relevant information; and

(c) Undertake any other duties and responsibilities as assigned by the Tribal Council.

(3) Special Event Committees. Special Event Committees are established to plan, organize and conduct special events on behalf of the Nation. In carrying out its responsibilities under this Code each special event committee shall:

(a) Plan, organize and conduct special events authorized by the Tribal Council;

(b) Report to the Tribal Council on committee activities, issues and other relevant information; and

(c) Undertake any other duties and responsibilities as assigned by the Tribal Council.

(4) Bylaws. Unless otherwise provided in the resolution establishing the committee, all committees established under this Code shall adopt bylaws consistent with this Code and approved by the Tribal Council.

(5) Committee Names. Each committee established under this Code shall be given a committee name by the Council in accordance with the Committee's assigned responsibilities.

(6) Committee Membership. All committees shall consist of the following membership:

(a) Each committee shall be composed of a minimum of five (5) and a maximum of seven (7) members appointed by the Tribal Council.

(b) Employees of the Nation may be appointed to committees.

(7) General. The following responsibilities apply to the membership of all committees:

(a) Individuals may serve as members on no more than one (1) committee at a time; however, membership on an ad-hoc committee or special event committee does not count towards this limitation. In no case shall any individual be appointed to more than two (2) committees at any given time.

(b) Immediate family members shall not serve on the same committee at the same time.

(c) Committees may utilize the assistance of non-committee member resource people. Individuals serving in a committee resource capacity shall not vote or be counted for purposes of determining a quorum.

(d) No person having been convicted of a felony within the last five (5) years shall serve on a committee and no person having been convicted of a crime against a child shall serve on a committee that provides activities for children regardless of the age of the conviction. This provision may be waived by the Tribal Council if the Tribal Council finds that mitigating factors justify the waiver.

(e) An individual owing a debt to the Nation may not serve on a committee unless arrangements for repayment of the debt have been made.

(f) Committee members shall be at least eighteen (18) years of age unless a committee's bylaws provide otherwise.

(g) The Tribal Council shall appoint additional members to a committee in excess of the maximum allowed under this Code if the Tribal Council finds that the number of members is insufficient to carry out the committee's responsibilities.

(h) Committee members shall attend all committee meetings unless they give written or verbal notice to the committee chairperson at least three (3) days prior to the meeting; provided, however, that no notice is necessary if injury or illness of the committee member or illness, injury, or death of an immediate family member or dependent caused the absence.

(i) Committee members shall provide input and actively participate on all matters before the committee and support all committee decisions.

(j) At the end of each committee member's term of office, upon resignation or removal of a member, or upon other vacancy by a member, the member shall deliver all papers, records, and books and other items in the member's possession that relate to the committee, to the member's successor, or to the committee Chairperson.

The committee chairperson shall report all such removals to the Tribal Council and the Council shall then fill said vacancies.
